

NOMADS Respect Policy (Abridged Version)

Nomads have written a respect policy in order to promote appropriate behaviour within the society to ensure that membership of NOMADS is a fun and safe environment for people of all ages to enjoy.

This policy is to highlight the following behaviours which are considered as not acceptable:

Alcohol/Drugs

Strictly no alcohol will be allowed during rehearsals or during performances.
Any member who turns up to a performance drunk or under the influence of recreational drugs will be asked to leave the premises.

Abuse /Harassment

Abuse /verbal or physical Harassment (including bullying) defined as any offensive, abusive, intimidating malicious or insulting behaviour to a recipient is not acceptable

Internet Sites & Social Media

Any internet sites, social media groups (public or private), social media conversations and invitations which are either created for a NOMADS event or maintained by any of the membership in relation to a NOMADS event should be properly maintained and kept free of any inappropriate comments, foul language or controversial personal views which may be viewed by either younger members, FONS or the public.

This policy contains information regarding to whom to escalate concerns regarding inappropriate behaviour.

Applicable to NOMADS membership, all volunteers filling supporting roles for a show (ie chaperones, back stage crew, front of house) excluding Corn Exchange Staff
